Jeff
I'm glad
I got glad to know
you. Stay out of trouble and think of your wife.
Tami

Jeff.
I'm ashamed to know you but what can I say. Good luck
Yillbut

Jeff
Don't worry. I'm never going to forget you.
It's not easy to forget people like you.
Love always Gina

Jeff,
I'm glad I met ya, you're sweet. Don't ever change. I'm not a nympho, I just enjoy sex just a joke (not really)
Love,
Sophie

Jeff,
I've heard a whole lot about you and I believe me, I bet it's all true. Deep on, smiling, Jeff,
K.T.

To the classes we leave behind,

The last four years of our lives have been completed. How fast the time traveled; yesterday it seemed that it would last forever and now today it only exists behind us. Deep inside all of us know these replaceable yesterdays will linger on for as long as forever; either tucked warmly in our hearts or on that photograph we plan to save forever.

There were times when things didn't go just right and often we wanted to quit, but we never did, for there were great times to re-live and special friends with favorite smiles by our side.
 These things made everything just right again.

So as we leave you at Gorman remember that only you can make the great times happen, only you can make it last forever, and only you can make the smiles that will help a friend through.

We will miss our home at Gorman and the family we leave behind the classroom doors. It is time for us to head into tomorrow while you at Gorman still have another chance to hold on tight to today.

With many memories,
 The Senior Class of '77'.

Jeff,
 it's been nice knowing ya
 you finally got out of the prison camp (Gorman) a sweet guy come back and visit me
 some time

This archive expresses all of the beautiful thoughts and memories that we have experienced together. Each page holds in it a special moment that we will cherish forever

I still know you and this year has been one of the most beautiful I've enjoyed and miss you and especially my son and David always

To Mrs. Roos,

You have taught us so very much; we want to thank you. So often we began to tell you but we just didn't know how. Through our last four years we have changed our opinions, made new friends, and have run into many obstacles. But you have always been there trusting us, loving us, and giving of yourself. So in our deepest appreciation we are dedicating this archive to you.

Thank you for your love,
The Senior Class of '77.

Today . . .

Let us remember the excitement of school spirit, the challenge of competition, the warmth of a smile, and the endless circle of time itself. Let us remember what we have learned and let us learn from what we remember.

Jeff good luck on your future years.
Rick R.

Jeff,
I'm in love with you but have a great life with Mike & Ronke

Jeff - to a hell of a tough guy in football and all fake care and I'll see you this summer good luck in the future summer

Good Morning Yesterday

You wake up and time has slipped away,

And suddenly it's hard to find those memories you've left behind

remember?

The laughter

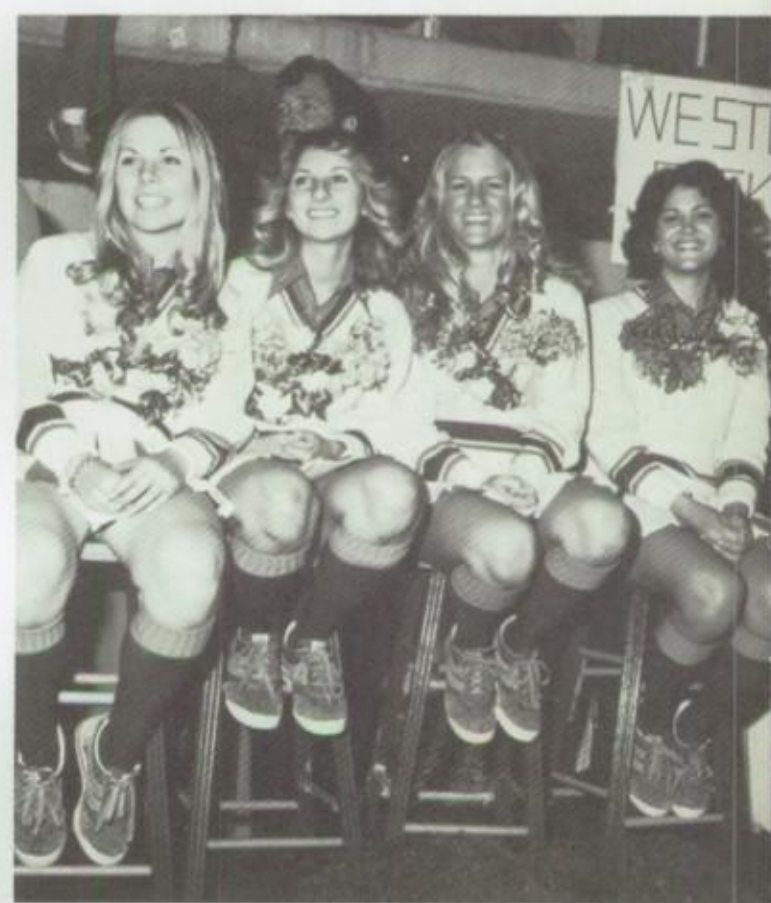

and the tears,

The moments of misty yesteryears

And suddenly it's hard to hold the memories you now unfold,

Remember,

Remember?

Do you

Those special feelings we've learned to show

Will soon be part of long ago

And sorting through old photographs

You'll find those times seem hard to grasp Remember, Do you remember . . .

The times of your life

The time has come for a final glance; to record the assemblies, the dances, the victories and the loses, that mark the highlight of our year, to wash dabs of poster paint from our shoes, and think about the chemistry of water, and paint and posters, and people, and our years at Bishop Gorman ...

We will pose for you, Miss C.

You are going away, Living a life that will no longer be shared with me.

Time has changed so many things I no longer think of the bad times but appreciate all of the good ones.

You are still a very big part of my life, very important, my memory.

I am thankful now for what we all have shared, for I know that is has helped me to become what I am today.

And when it's done I feel so weary Could the sun feel this tired when it sets And yet though I'm tired I feel so peaceful It's hard, but I have no regrets.

Dear Jeff,
Thanks for everything. I mean everything I ever said. I still care, I still love you and I'll still be there, Mary

I thank you for letting me you let me do alot of stuff I had fun! I want you to know I haven't drank since we gave it up. I think that it is pretty good.

Don't you? I really appreciate everything you did for me. I hope I did something worth while for you. Please get really good grades in college and work hard I know you can
so do it for me, (not really) I do it for you) PLEASE! When I need your help, I'll call - so when ~~I~~ ~~so~~ you need my help, please call. I still care. I just think we care about each other in different ways sometimes. That seems to be my problem alot.
